Jurisdiction	Cancellation of Tax Payments
Alabama	The payment will not automatically be rescheduled, you can reschedule or cancel your payment using one of the following methods depending on how it was originally scheduled. 1. If you scheduled your payment when you or your tax preparer submitted your return through the e-file system, you can reschedule or cancel your payment by going to https://myalabamataxes.alabama.gov/?link=delaypayment . 2. If you scheduled a payment by credit card or debit card, contact the card processor to cancel the payment. 3. If the payment was scheduled through My Alabama Taxes (MAT), you may be able to modify or cancel your scheduled payment by logging back into your MAT account https://myalabamataxes.alabama.gov/ . 4. If the extension or estimate payment was scheduled through Alabama Interactive, you can log back in to cancel your payment. At this time the payment date cannot be updated past April 15, we are working with Alabama Interactive to update the system to allow the Extension and Estimate payments to be rescheduled to July 15.
Arizona
Arkansas
California	To cancel the payment, contact e-file Help Desk at (916) 845-0353. Weekdays, 8 AM to 5 PM. You must cancel your payment at least 2 business days before your scheduled payment. If your scheduled payment is on April 15, you must cancel the payment by April 13. We suggest you call us even sooner to cancel your payment. Visit Pay by bank account (Web Pay) to reschedule your payment. If you have a MyFTB account, you can also log in and make a bank account payment through Web Pay. Note: If you meet the mandatory e-payment requirement, you must pay electronically.
Colorado	Coloradans wishing to cancel their currently scheduled direct debit payments in order to take advantage of the deadline extension can do so by emailing the Colorado Department of Revenue at DOR_TaxpayerService@state.co.us . For expedited processing, taxpayers should put "Request Cancellation of Direct Debit Payment" in the subject line of the email. Once a payment is cancelled, it cannot be rescheduled through filing software, and a taxpayer must pay by the extended due date using another method to avoid penalty and interest. Please submit all payment cancellation requests no later than 5:00 PM, Monday, April 13th, 2020.
Connecticut
Delaware
District of Columbia	If a taxpayer remitted payment via MeF and now wants to change their payment scheduled due date from 4/15/2020 or any date prior to the new July 15 new due date, they would need to contact their financial institution to stop payment. If a taxpayer used the web portal, MyTax.dc.gov to remit payment and wants to change their scheduled due date from 4/15/2020 or any date prior to July 15 new due date, they should follow the steps outlined at the following link to cancel a scheduled payment: https://mytax.dc.gov/WebFiles/faq/faq.html
