Alaska	Yes	The legislature passed HB 375 which greatly expanded the requirement for e-filing of all tax returns. Effective July 1, 2016, a taxpayer is required to e-file any return or report, unless a waiver is granted by the Department of Revenue (DOR). Note: Under regulations adopted October 25, 2015, Alaska requires any corporation to e-file, if that corporation is required to e-file its federal return. (See Alaska Regulation 15 AAC 20.150–155 for more details.) The DOR will not grant a waiver if a corporation is subject to such federal electronic filing requirements.	Yes	A taxpayer may apply for a waiver if the taxpayer does not have the capability to file electronically. A waiver may be requested by filing Form 773 Electronic Filing Waiver Application, at least 30 days before the due date of the tax return. It is not n
